ACCA's Approved Learning Partner programme is a quality assurance programme which aims to recognise high-quality tuition providers who can prove that they meet ACCA's demanding performance targets.

The programme is open to established tuition providers who are able to meet a range of challenging performance targets, representing global best practice in the provision of ACCA course tuition and support.

Gold and Platinum approvals are granted only to high quality tuition providers whom ACCA is confident to recommend to students. ACCA's Approved Learning Partners are formally assessed by ACCA on an annual basis.

Free language support

The ACCA Qualification sets the highest standards for accountancy all over the world. ACCA students and members are finance professionals with outstanding technical skills, an ethical approach – and the ability to become a valued strategic partner in the organisations they choose to work for. This is why the ACCA Qualification is sought after and valued by employers and regulators around the world. So it stands to reason that our exams are rigorous and that our pass mark is 50%.

If you are studying for the ACCA Qualification and English isn't your first language or you feel you need to improve some aspects of your English language skills, then you can take the BPP University English Language support sessions which are available to all ACCA students for free. These free courses will offer you English language study support across the ACCA Qualification modules. It is written and delivered by BPP University School of Foundation and English Language Studies. Content is tailored to support ACCA students at each stage of the ACCA Qualification, from F1 through to P7.

To find out more visit our website and search for BPP University English language support.
