

Think Ahead

ACCA

Where will your path to success
lead you?

Success is a destination with many different paths. Where can we take you?

We're living in incredibly interesting times.

Consumers, industries, markets, competitors, and even countries, are changing at a pace never seen before. The fundamental ideas of business and leadership are in a constant state of change.

For many people the question is: 'What next?'

Finance is a career path that offers countless opportunities, because there are so many organisations of different types and sizes that you could work with. We'll help you develop the skills that will put you in demand, and give you the ability to adapt, as the world of business changes around us.

So many possibilities, so little standing in your way.

Achieve success

Whatever path to ACCA membership you take, there are many qualifications you can achieve along the way. It's a great way to stay motivated, stand out from the competition, become more valuable to prospective employers, and give you the opportunity to realise your full potential. Through our unique partnerships, it's possible for you to achieve a BSc degree in Applied Accounting awarded by Oxford Brookes University and a MSc in Professional Accountancy awarded by University of London.

Learn around your life

In today's busy world, we think that learning should fit around your life, rather than your life around learning. With ACCA, you choose the pace you want to work at, how you want to study, and when you want to sit your exams. Study while you work, for instance, and you could become an ACCA member in as little as three years.

Open to all

We offer a variety of entry points. Start your studies at the most relevant level for you, based on your previous qualifications.

24/7 Support

Our training and exams may be rigorous, but we're here for you all the way, with our huge range of resources, services and support.

Get on the fast track

Becoming an accounting and finance professional in as little as 12 months with our Conditional Exemption programme. If you are a student on an eligible course, you can claim exemptions and sit ACCA exams during your studies at universities and institutions.

Why accountancy?

There aren't arguably that many careers that provide such diverse opportunities as accountancy today. I see accountancy as a key to understanding complex business issues rather than a mere job description.

Why ACCA?

Other than being the largest and fastest growing international professional body in the world, ACCA provides an innovative approach to studying and qualifying as an accountant.

2.

We value the skills learnt on the journey

Employers all over the world are looking for people with the breadth of knowledge who can adapt to all the demands of modern-day business.

We help you to develop the variety of skills employers are increasingly looking for. Once you've got a good foundation of knowledge, you can tailor your qualifications to suit all your future ambitions.

Why accountancy?

Working in accountancy allows me to be involved in making strategic business decisions such as funding, mergers, restructures, and divestments.

Why ACCA?

ACCA has provided me with a strong foundation for success. I appreciate being able to work across various business sectors, within different locations, and meeting new people.

3.

We explore limitless paths to success

A finance qualification opens doors to career opportunities all over the world, in organisations as diverse as Coca Cola and Oxfam. No wonder it was the starting point for many of the biggest names in business.

As the #1 professional qualification demanded by leading employers, we'll help you on your path to choosing a successful business career.

Why accountancy?

Ultimately, finance is the driver of an organisation. Every company has a mission but being profitable is the main one. It is a delicate balance to be profitable and still deliver value to your stakeholders.

Why ACCA?

The depth of the ACCA syllabus means that those of us who complete the training to become ACCA members are extremely versatile. Today, I can walk into any meeting – whether it is to discuss a project, treasury matters, reporting – and I would still be able to contribute to the conversation because ACCA has prepared me with the core knowledge to operate as a complete finance professional.

4.

Enjoy our support every step of the way

Whether you're just starting out and looking to learn the fundamentals, or you're working at the strategic end of big business, we are here to support you throughout your journey.

Not just with flexible study options to suit your life, but with the right training, support and qualifications to suit your career.

48%

of our members are women, more than any other professional accountancy body

Over half of ACCA members work in wider commercial business
