ACCOUNTING STANDARDS UPDATE UNDER THE NEW UK GAAP

Charles Gubbins

We are now into the 'comparative' year for the new UK GAAP, be it FRS 102 or the FRSSE 2015 and are expecting an increase to the small company limits and the outcome of an exposure draft to provide guidance on Micro Entities within the FRSSE 2008. This session will provide an up-to-date appraisal of where we are on these and all other changes, focusing on the needs of SME clients.

- changes to UK GAAP for non-small entities
 - for pre-December 2015 year ends (assuming no early adoption of FRS 102)
 - FRS 102: What will the accounts look like, when might it be appropriate for a small entity to opt for FRS 102 and what transition issues need to be dealt with this year
- company law changes affecting SMEs
- small companies part 1: FRSSE 2008 developments.

15.00 - 15.15 break

15.15 - 17.00

ACCOUNTING STANDARDS UPDATE UNDER THE NEW UK GAAP – CONTINUED

Charles Gubbins

- small companies part 2: FRSSE 2015
 what the accounts will look like, areas of difference to FRSSE 2008 and what needs to be done this year
- Micro Entities: accounting and reporting choices and proposed changes to the FRSSE.

17.00 – 17.15 break

17.15 - 18.30

TAX IMPLICATIONS OF THE NEW UK GAAP Paul Soper

- taxation and accounting uneasy bedfellows for many years a brief historical perspective on the disclosure of profits for taxation purposes
- Finance Act 2002 the legal obligation to report using GAAP as it applies to all persons reporting profits
- implications of changes in fundamental accounting rules what adjustments must be made
- taxation consequences of new accounting standards FRS 101 and FRS 102
- advantages and disadvantages through early adoption.

SORP UPDATE

Charles Gubbins

After something of a false start last year, where we were expecting more guidance at an earlier stage, this session will be able to focus on the changes that are being made to best practice. These changes are being made either due to the advent of the changes to UK GAAP or, in some cases, to improve the effectiveness, consistency and understandability of financial statements. Our main areas of interest will be the latest public benefit entity SORPs and service charge accounts.

- overview of recent changes to Public Benefit Entity ('PBE') guidance including SORPs
- update of the issue of new SORPs

 PBEs, focusing primarily on charities
 LLPs
- status of FRED 50 residential management companies.

OR

TOP 20 MISTAKES PRACTITIONERS MAKE Dean Wootten

- pitfalls affecting owner managed businesses and their owners
- wording of compliance documents such as dividend minutes when adopting a low salary/high dividend extraction policy
- key dates in the tax calendar which must never be missed
- timing and format of key elections
- review of key cases with emphasis on lessons that can be learnt from other peoples' mistakes.

12.00 - 12.45 lunch

12.45 - 14.00

ACCOUNTANTS AND THE LAW Steve Giles

- the key legal and ethical issues affecting accountants in the area of financial crime
- overview of the new UK regulatory and crime-fighting framework
- the risk-based approach and what this means in practice for accountants
- summary of anti-money laundering threats and the requirements of accountants under the law and regulations
- review of the critical sections of The Bribery Act 2010
- the "adequate procedures" needed under The Bribery Act 2010
- the role of auditors in the prevention and detection of fraud
- analysis of recent cases.
