How to Study

Classroom tuition / revision a range of weekend, weekday or evening classroom tuition and revision for full coverage of all the topics and guidance on exam technique for the June and December exam sittings.

Classroom integrated courses exam focused tuition leading to the new March and September exam sittings, with full access to our online resources and a marked mock exam.

Live Online courses all our standard online content plus live streaming of our evening or weekend classroom sessions for interactive Q&A. These courses give you flexibility but with a defined structure to help you stay on track with your studies.

Standard Online courses pre-recorded online lectures cover the entire syllabus with the use of exam standard lecture examples and question debriefs, allowing you complete flexibility to study at your own pace.

All courses include our own course notes and full tutor contact details so you can call or email your tutor at any time if you need extra help or advice

Extra Exam Sittings
 ACCA are now offering 4 exam sittings per year with additional sittings in March and September

We are expanding our range of courses to include an exciting new range of integrated courses leading to the March and September exam sittings.

Free retake special—if you don't pass in September you can attend the equivalent December revision course free!

ACCA Courses—September exams

Our integrated courses fully prepare you for the September exam, combining tuition with guided revision and question practice. All courses include a marked final mock exam. If you wish to spread your studies over a longer period, you can supplement the course with a revision course leading to the December exam sitting. Standard online courses can be purchased for any exam sitting.
