Notice of hearing

A hearing of ACCA's Appeal Committee will take place at 10.00 am on 13 February 2013, at Radisson Blu Hotel, Dublin Airport, Dublin, Ireland. The hearing is open to the media or any member of the public who wishes to attend.

The case that will be heard on this day is an appeal against the decision of the Admissions and Licensing Committee from 27 June 2012 concerning an allegation that a member and their firm is guilty of misconduct by reason of an unsatisfactory outcome to an audit monitoring visit.

The case will be heard by a panel of ACCA's Admissions and Licensing Committee.

Notes to Editors

1. ACCA (the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants) is the global body for professional accountants. We aim to offer business-relevant, first-choice qualifications to people of application, ability and ambition around the world who seek a rewarding career in accountancy, finance and management.
2. We support our 154,000 members and 432,000 students in 170 countries, helping them to develop successful careers in accounting and business, with the skills required by employers. We work through a network of over 80 offices and centres and more than 8,400 Approved Employers worldwide, who provide high standards of employee learning and development. Through our public interest remit, we promote appropriate regulation of accounting and conduct relevant research to ensure accountancy continues to grow in reputation and influence.
3. Founded in 1904, ACCA has consistently held unique core values: opportunity, diversity, innovation, integrity and accountability. We believe that accountants bring value to economies in all stages of development and seek to develop capacity in the profession and encourage the adoption of global standards. Our values are aligned to the needs of employers in all sectors and we ensure that through our qualifications, we prepare accountants for business. We seek to open up the profession to people of all backgrounds and remove artificial barriers, innovating our qualifications and delivery to meet the diverse needs of trainee professionals and their employers.
