

Notice of hearing

A hearing of ACCA's Disciplinary Committee, will take place at 10.00 am on 9 May 2013, at ACCA's Head Offices, 29 Lincoln's Inn Fields, London, WC2A 3EE. The hearing is open to any member of the public or the media who wishes to attend.

The case that will be heard on this day concerns two allegations that a member is guilty of misconduct in that on 25 October 2010, he stated to ACCA in a Practising Certificate Renewal 2011 form that his continuity of practice nominee was a member which was dishonest and/or contrary to the Fundamental Principal of Integrity; between 25 October 2010 and 31 December 2011, he failed to enter into and keep in force for all of the period during which he held a practising certificate, a written agreement from another accountant, a firm of accountants or a limited company (the "nominee"), providing for the nominee to be responsible for his practice in the event of his incapacity; contrary to Global Practising Regulation 11 of the Chartered Certified Accountants' Global Practising Regulations 2003 (as applicable in 2010 and 2011).

The case will be heard by a panel of ACCA's Disciplinary Committee.

Notes to Editors

1. ACCA (the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants) is the global body for professional accountants. We aim to offer business-relevant, first-choice qualifications to people of application, ability and ambition around the world who seek a rewarding career in accountancy, finance and management.
2. We support our 154,000 members and 432,000 students in 170 countries, helping them to develop successful careers in accounting and business, with the skills required by employers. We work through a network of over 80 offices and centres and more than 8,400 Approved Employers worldwide, who provide high standards of employee learning and development. Through our public interest remit, we promote appropriate regulation of accounting and conduct relevant research to ensure accountancy continues to grow in reputation and influence.
3. Founded in 1904, ACCA has consistently held unique core values: opportunity, diversity, innovation, integrity and accountability. We believe that accountants bring value to economies in all stages of development and seek to develop capacity in the profession and encourage the adoption of global standards. Our values are aligned to the needs of employers in all sectors and we ensure that through our qualifications, we prepare accountants for business. We seek to open up the profession to people of all backgrounds and remove artificial barriers, innovating our qualifications and delivery to meet the diverse needs of trainee professionals and their employers.
