

IMPORTANT DATES

WHAT ARE THE IMPORTANT DATES FOR ME TO REMEMBER THROUGHOUT THE YEAR?

The table below outlines the important dates for you to remember throughout the year. We recommend you note these in your diary.

JANUARY
1 Your annual subscription fee is now due. 15 Requests should be submitted for special circumstances to be taken into consideration for marking scripts from the December exam session.
FEBRUARY
Results will normally be sent to you around the third week of the month if you sat the exams in December and can also be viewed at myACCA. A paper Examination Entry Form for June exams will be sent to you if you requested to receive in paper format. Requests for an administrative review should be received within 15 working days from the release of December results.
MARCH
8 Early exam entry closing date for June exams – for online applications only for June exams. Requests for special exam centres must be received by this date for the June exam session (refer to the 'Exams' section to find out about special exam centres).
APRIL
Appeals against the results of an administrative review should be received by the first week of April, relating to December exams. 8 Standard exam entry closing date for June exams – for online and paper applications for June exams. Applications to change your variant papers for June exams must be received by this date or make changes on myACCA. Requests for additional support during June exams must be received by this date.
MAY
Examination Attendance Dockets will start to be posted if you requested a paper copy to be sent to you for the June exams, detailing the subjects you are entered to sit and the address of the exam centre, if you requested to receive in paper format. 8 Online applications for late exam entries must be received by this date for June exams.
JUNE
Exams will normally be held over an eight-day period in the first and second week.

JULY
15 Requests should be submitted for special circumstances to be taken into consideration for marking scripts from the June exam session.
AUGUST
Results will normally be sent to you around the third week of the month if you sat the exams in June and can also be viewed at myACCA. A paper Examination Entry Form for December exams will be sent to you if you requested to receive in paper format. Requests for an administrative review should be received within 15 working days from the release of June results.
SEPTEMBER
8 Early exam entry closing date for December exams – for online applications only for December exams. Requests for special exam centres must be received by this date for the December exam session (refer to the 'Exams' section to find out about special exam centres).
OCTOBER
Appeals against an administrative review for June exams should be received by the first week of October, relating to June exams. 8 Standard exam entry closing date for December exams – online and paper applications for December exams. Applications to change variant papers for December exams must be received by this date or changed on myACCA. Requests for additional support during December exams must be received by this date.
NOVEMBER
Examination Attendance Dockets will start to be posted if you requested a paper copy to be sent to you for the December exams, detailing the subjects you are entered to sit and the address of the exam centre, if you requested to receive in paper format. Annual subscription invoices posted to you for your annual subscription of the following year. 8 Online applications for late exam entries must be received by this date for December exams.
DECEMBER
Exams will normally be held over an eight-day period in the first and second week.