☐ I wish to be transferred to the ACCA Qualification.

ACCA’s Global Practising Regulations

The following restrictions apply to individuals who are eligible to receive exemptions and subsequently wish to apply for an ACCA practising certificate and audit qualification. Students who are eligible to receive exemption from all 9 papers at the Fundamentals level must complete the remaining Professional level papers within 5 years of registration and must also pass optional paper P7 (Advanced Audit & Assurance). Students who are eligible to receive exemption from any papers at the Fundamentals level on the basis of qualifications gained more than 5 years previously at the time of the award must forfeit all of these exemptions and sit the corresponding ACCA exams. This applies to exemptions awarded after 1 January 2010.

8 BSC (HONS) DEGREE FROM OXFORD BROOKES UNIVERSITY

Applicable if you wish to transfer to the ACCA Qualification

ACCA’s innovative partnership with Oxford Brookes University allows ACCA students to study for a BSc (Hons) Degree in Applied Accounting, while taking their ACCA exams. On completion of the Fundamentals Level of the ACCA Qualification and the Professional Ethics Module, students are eligible to submit a Research and Analysis Project to Oxford Brookes in order to be assessed for the degree. You will automatically be considered for inclusion into this programme unless indicated below.

Your details will be held on a joint system.

☐ I do NOT wish to be included in the ACCA/Oxford Brookes University programme to obtain a BSc(Hons) Degree in Applied Accounting. I understand that I can opt in at a later date and that I must opt in prior to attempting papers F7, F8 or F9.

Please note: You must hold an acceptable English language qualification. If you are awarded exemptions from papers F7, F8 or F9, or your exemptions are based on qualifications gained by you more than 10 years ago, you will not be eligible to join the degree programme. Previously registered ACCA Qualification students transferring back to the ACCA Qualification will have their Oxford Brookes eligibility assessed on an individual basis, in accordance with current regulations.

9 METHOD OF PAYMENT

Payment can be made by a crossed sterling cheque made payable in the UK, crossed British postal orders or a sterling bank draft on a UK bank. Please refer to the ACCA website for the current fee. Cheques/bank drafts or postal orders should be made payable to ‘The Association of Chartered Certified Accountants’. Please print your name and registration number on the back of your payment document(s). Please do not send cash.

Alternatively if you prefer to pay by card, the debt will be raised onto your account when the application is processed and payment can be made by logging into your myACCA account online. Please note that your CAT status will only be confirmed and your certificate issued once payment has been received.

11 DECLARATION

I confirm I have read the NOTES section below and:

- I declare that the information I have given on this form is correct.
- I understand that any false or misleading statement in this form or any supporting documentation could lead to disciplinary action being taken against me and/or may invalidate any decision reached on this application.
- I agree that while I am registered with ACCA I will tell you about any event which may engage ACCA Bye-law 8 and make me liable to disciplinary action.
- I understand that if I fail to declare an event which may engage Bye-law 8 I may face an allegation of dishonest conduct.
- I agree to comply with ACCA's Charter, Bye-laws, Regulations and Code of Ethics and Conduct for the time being in force.
- I confirm I have not been subject to any criminal, disciplinary or other matters which may engage Bye-law 8 that have not already been brought to ACCA's attention in writing. I understand that the UK Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 does not apply to the accountancy profession and that I am required to disclose any convictions and/or cautions that are not 'protected' as defined by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 ( Exceptions) Order 1975 (as amended in 2013). The amendments to the Exceptions Order 1975 (2013) provide that certain spent convictions and cautions are 'protected' and are not subject to disclosure.
- I consent to ACCA processing my personal data as described under Section 10 (Communications and Marketing) of the ACCA Qualification registration form.
- I understand that my eligibility will be based solely on official documents about my qualifications that I have sent to ACCA.
- I understand that all applicable fees will be charged at the current rate and that, if re-admitted as a member, I must pay an annual subscription fee to ACCA due on the 1st January each year.
- I have disclosed details of any past events referred to in ACCA Bye-law 8 and understand that they will be taken into account in dealing with my application, but that they will not automatically stop me re-registering as an ACCA Qualification student.
- I understand that this information, together with any subsequent correspondence and documentation will be retained by ACCA in a database, and/or disclosed, for administrative and regulatory purposes.
- I understand that any such disclosure may be to a country outside the UK that does not have laws to protect this information.
- ACCA Exchange/Approved Partner students only: I agree that my ACCA Exchange/Approved Partner can administer my ACCA account and I understand that on leaving the employer I am ultimately responsible for my fees.

NOTES: ACCA’s Bye-law 8 sets out the details of the events which could lead to disciplinary action. These events include (but are not limited to) the following: having pleaded guilty to, been found guilty of, or accepted a caution in relation to, any offence discreditable to ACCA or to the accountancy profession; a finding by a court in any civil proceedings in which you have been a party or witness that you have acted fraudulently or dishonestly; incompetence in carrying out work; breach of ACCA Bye-laws or Regulations; disciplinary action against you by another professional body; bankruptcy or insolvency; failure to satisfy a judgment debt without reasonable excuse within two months; misconduct – this includes (but is not limited to) any act, or failure to act, which brings, or is likely to bring, discredit to you or a relevant firm or to ACCA or to the accountancy profession.

1 If you have any queries as to whether your current work constitutes public practice, please contact ACCA’s Authorisation’s department on +44 (0)141 534 4175 or via authorisations@accaglobal.com
