

Application for Direct Admission to Membership

A member of the Malaysian Institute of Certified Public Accountants who has successfully completed the MICPA professional examination and obtained MICPA membership will be eligible for admission to membership of ACCA under one of the following schemes.

ROUTE A

Members of MICPA in good standing who have been admitted as Certified Public Accountants (CPA members) and wish to become eligible for ACCA membership must prepare for and pass ACCA's Paper P1, The Professional Accountant. Paper P1 consists of a three-hour written examination.

MICPA members must indicate below which examination session they wish to be entered for in addition to the name of the examination centre at which they would like to sit the examination. The examination entry closing date for the December session is 15 October and 15 April for the June session.

The current examination fee for Paper P1 is £61GBP which is subject to be reviewed at each examination session. This payment must accompany your completed application. If any MICPA member fails to pass Paper P1, he/she would be required to resit this paper at the next examination session. The examination fee established for that particular examination session would be required to be paid to allow the MICPA member to resit Paper P1.

I wish to sit at the December session.

ROUTE B

Members of MICPA who have achieved five years' relevant post-qualification professional experience must complete either:

i the ACCA online Professional Ethics Module (PEM)

The module allows applicants to establish what their ethical values are, gives them a wide base of ethics theory and reinforces the five fundamental ethics principles – objectivity, integrity, confidentiality, professional behaviour, and professional competence and due care. In order to put into practice what they have learned, applicants complete the module via an interactive case study which allows them to experience an ethical dilemma from two points of view – the auditor side and the corporate financial accountant side. Applicants are asked to analyse the situation and make a number of decisions, on which they receive immediate feedback.

There is no charge for the Professional Ethics Module. As soon as your application is received by ACCA you will be issued with instructions on how to access the online PEM.

ii the ACCA Critical Incident Questionnaire (CIQ)

A CIQ is a structured record of a significant incident which a professional has been exposed to at work, which enables the professional to reflect on his or her practice and to explain, justify, or if necessary modify, his or her behaviour. The CIQ will be offered for a 12-month period from September 2007. After this time the CIQ may be withdrawn at the discretion of ACCA.

The CIQ costs £30GBP and payment must accompany this form. You will be sent the CIQ as soon as ACCA receives your completed application.

Members admitted under the terms of the MRA are required to maintain their original designation, which includes payment of annual subscriptions to both organisations. If, for any reason, a member ceases to hold his or her original designation, the member concerned shall automatically cease to be eligible for membership of the other body under the MRA.

Admission as a member under the MRA does not provide an applicant with the right to engage in public practice. Applicants who are engaged in public practice as a sole practitioner, partner or director of a firm which undertakes public practice, are required to hold an ACCA practising certificate and must therefore submit a practising certificate application form. A copy of the form can be downloaded from ACCA's website at www.accaglobal.com/members/professionalstandards

APPLICATION FOR DIRECT ADMISSION TO MEMBERSHIP

I confirm that the information contained in this form is true, accurate and complete to the best of my knowledge and belief. I understand that any false or misleading statement in this form could lead to disciplinary action being taken against me and/or may invalidate any decision reached on this application. I have read Bye-law 8, liability to disciplinary action, at the back of this form, and there is nothing I should bring to ACCA's attention at the present time. I understand that the UK Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 does not apply to the accountancy profession, and that I am, therefore, required to disclose spent convictions.

As this is an application for full membership, I undertake, that if admitted as a member I will, so long as I remain a member of ACCA, abide by the Bye-laws and all regulations made hereunder. I further undertake that I will use the designation 'Chartered Certified Accountant' and the designatory letters 'ACCA' (or 'FCCA' when I become a fellow) only while I remain a member of ACCA.

I acknowledge my duty is to maintain the quality of my knowledge and will undertake adequate continuing professional development as directed by Council and specified in the 'Chartered Certified Accountants' Membership Regulations.

I agree to pay the initial subscription fee £175 (which includes my subscription for the current calendar year) and, where applicable, the P1 examination fee or CIQ fee. In addition, and where applicable, the practising certificate fee of £300*. I understand that this sum will be refunded to me if my application is unsuccessful.

I enclose the following with my application:

- If applying under route A – a letter from the Malaysian Institute of Certified Public Accountants of which I am a member, confirming that I have been a member in good standing and have completed the MICPA Professional Examination and stating the date of my admission to membership.
- If applying under route B – a letter from the Malaysian Institute of Certified Public Accountants of which I am a member, confirming that I have been a member in good standing for five continuous years and have completed the MICPA Professional Examination and stating the date of my admission to membership.
- Initial subscription fee payable on admission to register of £175, plus P1 fee of £61 (if applicable) or CIQ fee of £30 (if applicable)
- Practising certificate fee of £300* plus the initial subscription fee and, if applicable, P1 fee of £61 or CIQ fee of £30 (*Applicable only to UK/Irish/Channel Islands/Isle of Man practising certificate applicants. Certificates for other countries are, currently, issued free of charge).
- Practising certificate application form
- Copy of practising certificate/confirmation of eligibility for a practising certificate.

BYE-LAW 8: LIABILITY TO DISCIPLINARY ACTION

- a A member, relevant firm or registered student shall, subject to bye-law 11, be liable to disciplinary action if:
- i he or it, in the course of carrying out his or its professional duties or otherwise, has been guilty of misconduct;
 - ii he or it has performed his or its professional work or conducted his or its practice, or (in the case of a member or registered student) performed the duties of his employment, improperly, inefficiently or incompetently to such an extent or on such number of occasions as to bring discredit to himself or itself, to the Association, or to the accountancy profession;
 - iii he or it has committed any breach of these bye-laws or of any regulations made under them in respect of which he or it is bound;
 - iv in the case of a relevant firm, any person has in the course of the business of that firm committed any breach of these bye-laws or of any regulations made under them in respect of which that person is bound;
 - v he is a specified person in relation to a relevant firm against which a disciplinary order has been made and which has become effective or which has been disciplined by another professional body or pursuant to some other disciplinary process;
 - vi he or it has been disciplined by another professional body or pursuant to some other disciplinary process;
 - vii he or it has made an assignment for the benefit of creditors, or has made an arrangement for the payment of a composition to creditors, or has had an interim order made by the court in respect of him, or is a specified person in relation to a relevant firm which has made such an assignment or composition or been wound up as an unregistered company, or entered into a voluntary arrangement, administration or liquidation, in each case where applicable under the Insolvency Act 1986, or other similar or analogous event has occurred in relation to him or it under applicable legislation; or
 - viii he or it has failed to satisfy a judgement debt without reasonable excuse for a period of two months (and the fact that he or it did not have sufficient funds to discharge the debt shall not be a reasonable excuse for this purpose) whether or not the debt remains outstanding at the time of the bringing of the disciplinary proceedings hereunder.
- b Each of the paragraphs in bye-law 8(a) shall be without prejudice to the generality of any of the other paragraphs therein.
- c For the purposes of bye-law 8(a), misconduct includes (but is not confined to) any act or default likely to bring discredit to the member, relevant firm or registered student in question. The fact that a member, relevant firm or registered student has before a court of competent jurisdiction in the United Kingdom or in a superior court of any country whose judgements are in the opinion of Council (or relevant committee of Council) relevant, pleaded guilty to or been found guilty of any offence discreditable to him or, as the case may be, it, or derogatory to the Association or the accountancy profession or has in any civil proceedings before any court of competent jurisdiction in the United Kingdom or in a superior court of any country whose judgements are enforceable in the United Kingdom been found to have acted fraudulently or dishonestly, shall be conclusive proof of misconduct. In deciding whether a member, relevant firm or registered student has been guilty of misconduct, regard may be had to any code of practice, ethical or technical, adopted by the Council, and to any regulation affecting members, relevant firms or registered students laid down or approved by the Council.
