CONDITIONS FOR THE ISSUE OF A FIRM'S INVESTMENT BUSINESS CERTIFICATE (IRELAND)

In signing this section of the form I confirm that:

Eligibility

my firm is eligible for an investment business certificate (Ireland) as it is a sole proprietorship and I hold an ACCA practising certificate valid for Ireland or it is a partnership or incorporated firm with at least one partner/director who is a member of ACCA who holds an ACCA practising certificate valid for Ireland and all of the other partners/directors are not ineligible to practise accountancy and are either members of another Approved Professional Body (APB)* or are regulated by other professional bodies and has a majority of partners/directors who are either members of ACCA or of other APBs in accordance with the Chartered Certified Accountants' Irish Investment Business Regulations 1999 (IIBRs) 3(2)(iii) and 3(3)(iii);

(*Institutes of Chartered Accountants in Ireland/of Scotland/in England and Wales and Institute of Certified Public Accountants in Ireland)

each partner/director or controller of 15% or more of the votes in an incorporated firm who is not a member of ACCA will give the undertakings to Admissions and Licensing Committee in either (a) or (b) below in accordance with IIBR 3(2)(iii) and 3(3)(iii), as applicable

a member of another APB

"I confirm that I am a member of another APB and undertake and agree to be bound by:

- i the Chartered Certified Accountants' Global Practising Regulations 2003 and the Chartered Certified Accountants' Irish Investment Business Regulations 1999 (as amended from time to time) as if I was a member of ACCA;
- ii all bye-laws and regulations of ACCA (and regulations made pursuant to the bye-laws) concerning or relating to the provision of investment business services or investment advice as if I was a member of ACCA;
- iii the regulations concerning liability of ACCA in damages for its acts and omissions; and
- iv the disciplinary procedures of ACCA and penalties which may be imposed under such provisions insofar as such penalties could be applicable to a person who is not a member of ACCA."

b other individual not ineligible to practise accountancy, regulated by another professional body and who, in the opinion of Admissions and Licensing Committee, holds an adequate qualification

"I confirm that I am not ineligible to practise accountancy and undertake and agree to be bound by

- i the Chartered Certified Accountants' Global Practising Regulations 2003 and the Chartered Certified Accountants' Irish Investment Business Regulations 1999 (as amended from time to time) as if I was a member of ACCA;
- ii the Charter, all bye-laws and regulations of ACCA (and regulations made pursuant to the bye-laws) as if I was a member of ACCA insofar as the same are appropriate and applicable, other than those relating to members' rights to attend and vote at meetings of ACCA and obligations to pay subscriptions;
- iii the regulations concerning liability of ACCA in damages for its acts and omissions; and
- iv the disciplinary procedures of ACCA and penalties which may be imposed under such provisions insofar as such penalties could be applicable to a person who is not a member of ACCA."

(Each partner/director/controller who is not a member of ACCA or another APB must provide additional information in a form specified by, and to the satisfaction of, Admissions and Licensing Committee. One copy of the appropriate form, PIB (Ireland), is attached to this form.)

Main business

the main business of my firm is the practice of accountancy and gross income which is derived from investment business services or investment advice (which is provided in an incidental manner and which is charged for separately from the firm's other work) is less than 20% of its total turnover in accordance with IIBR 3(1)(c), 3(2)(d) and 3(3)(d);

Trading name of firm

the name of the firm specified on this form is the name under which investment business services or investment advice is conducted and that any change to the name of the firm will be notified 28 days in advance of the implementation of any change and accompanied by an application for a new Irish investment business certificate (with the appropriate fee) from the stated date of the change as required under Chartered Certified Accountants' Global Practising Regulation (GPR) 12(1)(a) and GPR 12(1)(b);

(This name will appear on The Financial Regulator's Register and on the investment business certificate. If a firm has more than one office a single authorisation will still be appropriate, providing the name and constitution under which these additional offices carry out investment business is identical across the firm. Where offices carry out business under names or constitutions which differ from the applicant firm, separate authorisation applications must be submitted.)

Overseas branches or offices

my firm has no branches or offices outside of the Republic of Ireland and the United Kingdom, as required by IIBR 3(7)(a);

Other authorisations

my firm does not hold any other authorisation under the Investment Intermediaries Act 1995 (IIA), as required by IIBR 3(7)(b);

Approval and withdrawal of authorisation, misconduct

my firm accepts that its application for authorisation will be dealt with in accordance with the provisions laid down in the Authorisation Regulations 1998 (ARs) and ARs 3, 4 and 5 in particular, and that its authorisation may be subject to conditions, suspension or withdrawal as determined by ACCA in accordance with the IIBRs. It further accepts that breaches of the IIBRs and undertakings given thereunder by partners/directors, or other persons connected with the firm may be treated as misconduct for the purposes of disciplinary proceedings against the firm and/or any of its partners/directors;

Excluded activities my firm will not engage in the excluded activities detailed in IIBR 4(4);

Tied agents

my firm neither holds nor will it accept an appointment as another person's tied agent in accordance with IIBR 5(3);

Capital adequacy

my firm confirms that it is solvent and additionally, if applying for category A authorisation, to hold, on an ongoing basis, net business assets of €10,000;

Notification, monitoring and enforcement

my firm acknowledges its duty to notify ACCA in writing of all matters specified under GPR 12 and that such notification must, in certain circumstances, be given 28 days in advance. My firm undertakes to notify ACCA immediately in the event of any information previously supplied to it in support of an application ceasing to be true, accurate or complete, or in the event of any change in circumstances, or any event that may call into doubt the validity of any application, or the continuation of any application granted. My firm will provide such information as is necessary for ACCA to carry out its duties as an APB under the Investment Intermediaries Act 1995 ("the Act") and will co-operate with ACCA in its monitoring and enforcement of its regulations as required by GPR 14 and by regulation 18 of the Irish Annex to the GPRs; my firm acknowledges that in the course of issuing an investment business certificate (Ireland), neither ACCA nor any of its officers or servants or agents nor any members of any committee of Council shall be liable in damages or otherwise for anything done or omitted to be done in the discharge or purported discharge of any function under the Act set out below unless the act or omission is shown to have been in bad faith. The functions referred to above are the functions of ACCA so far as relating to or matters arising out of:

Liability

- a the bye-laws, regulations and arrangements of ACCA so far as they relate to or are applied in respect of the carrying on of investment business certification under the Act or any matters concerning the Act and/or to which the requirements in the Act requires ACCA to comply;
- b the obligations with which paragraph 6 of Schedule 3 of the Act require ACCA to comply;
- c any guidance issued by ACCA in respect of any matter dealt with by such rules as are mentioned in (a) above;
- d the powers of ACCA under the provision mentioned in Section 54(3) of the Act; or
- e the obligations to which ACCA is subject by virtue of the Act;

Compensation scheme

my firm accepts its obligation to join, and make contributions to, the appropriate fund of the Investor Compensation Company Limited. (Fund A covers product producers and sellers. Fund B covers product sellers only.)

(Where reference is made to the GPRs, applicants applying for an investment business certificate (Ireland) should note that they must also comply with the Irish Annex to the GPRs.)

CONFIRMATION

If you have been subject to matters within the terms of bye-law 8 and ACCA's professional conduct department is aware of this, you may sign and submit this form. If you are concerned that you may be subject to matters under bye-law 8 of which the professional conduct department is not already aware, please notify ACCA in writing to professionalconduct@accaglobal.com or 29 Lincoln's Inn Fields, London WC2A 3EE. Following this notification you may sign and submit this form.

I confirm that the information given in this form is true, accurate and complete to the best of my knowledge and belief after making all reasonable enquiries. I understand that a false declaration on this form may lead to disciplinary action being taken against me and/or my firm and/or may invalidate any decision relevant to this application. I confirm that I have read, and undertake to comply with the conditions for the issue of a firm's investment business certificate (Ireland). I further confirm that I have not been subject to any criminal, disciplinary, regulatory or any other matters within the terms of bye-law 8 (liability to disciplinary action) that may call into doubt the validity of my application, which I have not already brought to the attention of ACCA's professional conduct department. I am aware of, and will abide by, my continuing obligation to draw any such matters to ACCA's attention. I also confirm that I have read the Chartered Certified Accountants' Global Practising Regulations 2003 and the Chartered Certified Accountants' Irish Investment Business Regulations 1999 and have taken particular note of the notification obligations.

- 8 a A member, relevant firm or registered student shall, subject to bye-law 11, be liable to disciplinary action if:
- i he or it, whether in the course of carrying out his or its professional duties or otherwise, has been guilty of misconduct;
 - ii in connection with his or its professional duties, he or it has performed his or its work, or conducted himself or itself, or conducted his or its practice, erroneously, inadequately, inefficiently or incompetently;
 - iii he or it has committed any breach of these bye-laws or of any regulations made under them in respect of which he or it is bound;
 - iv in the case of a relevant firm, any person has in the course of the business of that firm committed any breach of these bye-laws or of any regulations made under them in respect of which that person is bound;
 - v he is a specified person in relation to a relevant firm against which a disciplinary order has been made and which has become effective or which has been disciplined by another professional body or pursuant to some other disciplinary process;
 - vi he or it has been disciplined by another professional body or pursuant to some other disciplinary process;
 - vii he or it has made an assignment for the benefit of creditors, or has made an arrangement for the payment of a composition to creditors, or has had an interim order made by the court in respect of him, or is a specified person in relation to a relevant firm which has made such an assignment or composition or been wound up as an unregistered company, or entered into a voluntary arrangement, administration or liquidation, in each case where applicable under the Insolvency Act 1986, or other similar or analogous event has occurred in relation to him or it under applicable legislation; or
 - viii he or it has failed to satisfy a judgment debt without reasonable excuse for a period of two months (and the fact that he or it did not have sufficient funds to discharge the debt shall not be a reasonable excuse for this purpose) whether or not the debt remains outstanding at the time of the bringing of the disciplinary proceedings hereunder.
- b Each of the paragraphs in bye-law 8(a) shall be without prejudice to the generality of any of the other paragraphs therein.
- c For the purposes of bye-law 8(a), misconduct includes (but is not confined to) any act or omission which brings, or is likely to bring, discredit to the individual or relevant firm or to the Association or to the accountancy profession.
- d For the purposes of bye-law 8(a), in considering the conduct alleged (which may consist of one or more acts or omissions), regard may be had to the following:
- i whether an act or omission, which of itself may not amount to misconduct, has taken place on more than one occasion, such that together the acts or omissions may amount to misconduct;
 - ii whether the acts or omissions have amounted to or involved dishonesty on the part of the individual or relevant firm in question;
 - iii the nature, extent or degree of a breach of any code of practice, ethical or technical, adopted by Council, and to any regulation affecting members, relevant firms or registered students laid down or approved by Council.
- e The following shall be conclusive proof of misconduct:
- i the fact that a member, relevant firm or registered student has pleaded guilty to, or been found guilty of, any offence discreditable to him or, as the case may be, it, or derogatory to the Association or the accountancy profession, before a court of competent jurisdiction in the United Kingdom or before a court of competent jurisdiction in any other country where such court's judgments are in the opinion of Council (or relevant committee of Council) relevant;
 - ii the fact that a member, relevant firm or registered student has been found to have acted fraudulently or dishonestly in any civil proceedings before any court of competent jurisdiction in the United Kingdom or before a court of competent jurisdiction in any other country where such court's judgments are enforceable in the United Kingdom.

- d For the purposes of bye-law 8(a), in considering the conduct alleged (which may consist of one or more acts or omissions), regard may be had to the following:
- i whether an act or omission, which of itself may not amount to misconduct, has taken place on more than one occasion, such that together the acts or omissions may amount to misconduct;
 - ii whether the acts or omissions have amounted to or involved dishonesty on the part of the individual or relevant firm in question;
 - iii the nature, extent or degree of a breach of any code of practice, ethical or technical, adopted by Council, and to any regulation affecting members, relevant firms or registered students laid down or approved by Council.
- e The following shall be conclusive proof of misconduct:
- i the fact that a member, relevant firm or registered student has pleaded guilty to, or been found guilty of, any offence discreditable to him or, as the case may be, it, or derogatory to the Association or the accountancy profession, before a court of competent jurisdiction in the United Kingdom or before a court of competent jurisdiction in any other country where such court's judgments are in the opinion of Council (or relevant committee of Council) relevant;
 - ii the fact that a member, relevant firm or registered student has been found to have acted fraudulently or dishonestly in any civil proceedings before any court of competent jurisdiction in the United Kingdom or before a court of competent jurisdiction in any other country where such court's judgments are enforceable in the United Kingdom.
