

Application for direct admission to membership

The ACCA logo consists of the letters 'ACCA' in a bold, white, sans-serif font, centered within a solid black square.

Scheme A (Membership Regulation 3(c)) is for applicants who are members of a body and hold an appropriate qualification recognised under the UK Companies Act 2006; and; is, or intends to be a partner, director, person responsible for audit or sole principal of a firm which holds, or intends to hold an auditing certificate under The Chartered Certified Accountants' Global Practising Regulations 2003.

Scheme B (Membership Regulation 3(d)) provides entry routes for members of the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants, Institute of Certified Public Accountants of Singapore (ICPAS) and Certified General Accountants Association of Canada (CGA-Canada). Applicants who wish to apply by virtue of their ICPAS membership should not complete this form but should instead obtain form DM (ICPAS). Applicants who wish to apply by virtue of their CGA-Canada membership should go to www.cga-online.org/canada and log in to PdNet to download the DM (CGA-Canada) form.

Scheme C (Membership Regulations 3(e)) is available to applicants from all sectors of the profession who can demonstrate records of achievement in accountancy and who have been members of other, specified, bodies for in excess of five years. The list of acceptable bodies is set-out overleaf. It should be noted that applications will not, in any circumstances, be accepted from those who are not members of one of the specified bodies listed overleaf.

All applicants who are in public practice (or who, subsequent to admission to ACCA membership, enters into public practice) must hold an ACCA practising certificate. This is a requirement even if the applicant already holds a licence to practice issued by a recognised accountancy body or regulatory authority.

This scheme is also available to members of staff employed on a full-time basis by the Association for at least a year.

Scheme D (Membership Regulation 3(f)) is for applicants who are invited by Council to become members of the Association.

Scheme E (Membership Regulation 3(b)) applies to those who have the right to practise in the UK as Chartered Certified Accountants within the meaning of Regulation 5 of the European Communities (Recognition of Professional Qualifications) Regulations 1991 by virtue of satisfying either of the requirements referred to therein and any amendment imposed pursuant to Regulation 6 thereof. It also applies to those who have the right to practise in the United Kingdom as a Chartered Certified Accountant pursuant to Regulation 11 of the European Communities (Recognition of Professional Qualifications) (Second General System) Regulations 1996, having satisfied any requirements imposed on him pursuant to Regulation 19 thereof. Applicants under this route should not complete this form but should instead obtain form MRD.

- (v) has, in the opinion of the Council, made a significant contribution to the knowledge or practice of accountancy; and
- (vi) will, in the opinion of the Council, bring benefits to the Association and/or its membership through his membership.

I hereby apply under bye-law 2 and Membership Regulation 3 for admission to membership of the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants.

I undertake that, if admitted, I will, so long as I remain a member of ACCA, comply with the bye-laws and all other regulations of ACCA for the time being in force.

I further undertake that I will use the designation 'Chartered Certified Accountant' and/or the prescribed designatory letters 'ACCA' or 'FCCA' only while I remain a member of ACCA.

I confirm that I am not the subject of any disciplinary proceedings of, or investigations by, the body of which I am currently a member.

I acknowledge my duty to the public to ensure that the quality of my knowledge and service is maintained after qualification. I therefore accept my responsibility to undertake adequate continuing professional development as directed by Council and specified in the Chartered Certified Accountants' Membership Regulations.

I confirm that I have never been adjudged bankrupt or either individually or as a partner in a firm, made or agreed to make an assignment for the benefit of creditors or made any arrangement or composition with creditors or executed any similar deed or agreement or taken or attempted to take the benefit of any statutory provision for arrangement with creditors.

I confirm that I have read and fully comprehend the content of ACCA's bye-law 8 and that there is nothing which I should bring to ACCA's attention at the present time. Please note that the UK Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 does not apply to the accountancy profession. You are, therefore, required to disclose spent convictions.

I declare that the whole of the information contained in this application is true, accurate and complete to the best of my knowledge and belief. I acknowledge that any statement contained herein which is known by me to be false may invalidate this application and any decision reached thereon by Council.

I agree to pay the admission fee of £181 (which includes my subscription for the current calendar year) and, where applicable, the practising certificate fee of £350/£75* (or insolvency licence fee of £1,000 for appointment takers or £350 for non-appointment takers). I understand that this sum will be refunded to me if my application is unsuccessful.

BYE-LAW 8 – LIABILITY TO DISCIPLINARY ACTION

- 8 a A member, relevant firm or registered student shall, subject to bye-law 11, be liable to disciplinary action if:
- i he or it, whether in the course of carrying out his or its professional duties or otherwise, has been guilty of misconduct;
 - ii in connection with his or its professional duties, he or it has performed his or its work, or conducted himself or itself, or conducted his or its practice, erroneously, inadequately, inefficiently or incompetently;
 - iii he or it has committed any breach of these bye-laws or of any regulations made under them in respect of which he or it is bound;
 - iv in the case of a relevant firm, any person has in the course of the business of that firm committed any breach of these bye-laws or of any regulations made under them in respect of which that person is bound;
 - v he is a specified person in relation to a relevant firm against which a disciplinary order has been made and which has become effective or which has been disciplined by another professional body or pursuant to some other disciplinary process;
 - vi he or it has been disciplined by another professional body or pursuant to some other disciplinary process;
 - vii he or it has made an assignment for the benefit of creditors, or has made an arrangement for the payment of a composition to creditors, or has had an interim order made by the court in respect of him, or is a specified person in relation to a relevant firm which has made such an assignment or composition or been wound up as an unregistered company, or entered into a voluntary arrangement, administration or liquidation, in each case where applicable under the Insolvency Act 1986, or other similar or analogous event has occurred in relation to him or it under applicable legislation; or
 - viii he or it has failed to satisfy a judgment debt without reasonable excuse for a period of two months (and the fact that he or it did not have sufficient funds to discharge the debt shall not be a reasonable excuse for this purpose) whether or not the debt remains outstanding at the time of the bringing of the disciplinary proceedings hereunder.
- b Each of the paragraphs in bye-law 8(a) shall be without prejudice to the generality of any of the other paragraphs therein.
- c For the purposes of bye-law 8(a), misconduct includes (but is not confined to) any act or omission which brings, or is likely to bring, discredit to the individual or relevant firm or to the Association or to the accountancy profession.
- d For the purposes of bye-law 8(a), in considering the conduct alleged (which may consist of one or more acts or omissions), regard may be had to the following:
- i whether an act or omission, which of itself may not amount to misconduct, has taken place on more than one occasion, such that together the acts or omissions may amount to misconduct;
 - ii whether the acts or omissions have amounted to or involved dishonesty on the part of the individual or relevant firm in question;
 - iii the nature, extent or degree of a breach of any code of practice, ethical or technical, adopted by Council, and to any regulation affecting members, relevant firms or registered students laid down or approved by Council.
- e The following shall be conclusive proof of misconduct:
- i the fact that a member, relevant firm or registered student has pleaded guilty to, or been found guilty of, any offence discreditable to him or, as the case may be, it, or derogatory to the Association or the accountancy profession, before a court of competent jurisdiction in the United Kingdom or before a court of competent jurisdiction any other country where such court's judgments are in the opinion of Council (or relevant committee of Council) relevant;
 - ii the fact that a member, relevant firm or registered student has been found to have acted fraudulently or dishonestly in any civil proceedings before any court of competent jurisdiction in the United Kingdom or before a court of competent jurisdiction in any other country where such court's judgments are enforceable in the United Kingdom.
