On 1 January 2005, Hong Kong achieved a major milestone in financial reporting, by fully converging HKFRSs with IFRSs. But with convergence came a commitment from the Hong Kong Institute of CPAs (HKICPA) to maintain that status, by adopting subsequent developments in IFRSs, in line with the International Accounting Standards Board's (IASB's) own relentless timetable and the interpretations issued by its interpretative body, IFRIC.

The IASB has kept to its promise of "no new standards effective before 2009". However, work has continued on amendments and interpretations on a diverse range of topics, as well as finalising new standards which will come into effect in the next few years. In 2008, the focus for preparers and auditors is to catch up on these new developments as well as to begin the preparation for the 2009 requirements.

In this seminar, the speaker will give an overview of these changes, focusing on:

- IFRS/HKFRS 8 Operating Segments
- IAS/HKAS 1 (revised) Presentation of financial statements
- Amendments arising from the first Annual Improvements Project
- IFRS/HKFRS 3 (revised) Business combinations
- IAS/HKAS 27 (revised) Consolidated and separate financial statements

Speaker:

Ms Catherine Morley, Principal, Professional Practice Department, KPMG, Hong Kong

As a Principal in KPMG's Professional Practice Department, Catherine is responsible for providing advice, and keeping clients and staff up to date, on financial reporting issues. She has served on several of the HKICPA's professional committees and is currently a member of its Financial Reporting Standards Committee.

Catherine is a member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales and the HKICPA. She trained as an auditor with KPMG UK and moved to Hong Kong in 1993.
