Find out more on how you can make your career as your most valuable asset by building your options and developing both your technical and non-technical skills. Look at how you can develop these non-technical, critical skills and manage your career. The session will also discuss the importance of networking, resume writing, interviewing & successfully negotiating the package you want, and from then on successfully negotiating your next steps within that company are crucial to achieving your goals.

About the Speaker

Tim Hird, Director, has worked at Robert Half International (RHI) for over nine years. In his current role, he is responsible for the Singapore operations of Robert Half International. Founded in 1948, Robert Half International Inc. (NYSE symbol: RHI) is the world's first and largest specialized staffing firm and a member of the S&P 500 index.

Prior to joining RHI Tim held a number of divisional, branch and regional management roles within the recruitment and search industry.

Tim has shown commitment and dedication to RHI over the past eight years, helping to build the permanent search and project consulting divisions, making the division one of the fastest growing within the organisation across Europe and South-East Asia. Tim is also actively involved in client and candidate initiatives within the Permanent Search and Project Consulting market in South-East Asia. With over nine years of industry experience at Robert Half International, Tim is a familiar industry figure and a valuable spokesperson on current trends affecting the market.
