Student removed from register

On 1 March 2005, the Disciplinary Committee of the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants (ACCA) considered a complaint against a student, Sun Dalei of Geylang, Singapore. The complaint that he was liable to disciplinary action under bye-law 8(a)(i) in that, contrary to Examination Regulation 3, he took to his desk and used while at that desk materials not authorised by the Registrar was found proved.

The Committee ordered that Mr Dalei should be removed from the student register, pay £300 towards costs, and that the decision should be published in the professional, national and local press referring to him by name.
