Member admonished

On 24 May 2005, the Disciplinary Committee considered two complaints against a member, Michael Kayes of Mottingham Road, London SE9 4SS. The complaints that he was liable to disciplinary action under bye-law 8(a)(i) and/or (iii) in that he:

i) carried on public practice without a practising certificate contrary to Practising Regulation 3(1) of the UK Annex to the Chartered Certified Accountants' Global Practising Regulations and

ii) is a sole proprietor of a firm which carries on public practice contrary to Practising Regulation 3(2) of the UK Annex to the Chartered Certified Accountants' Global Practising Regulations were found proved.

The Committee ordered that Mr Kayes should be admonished, pay costs of £736, and that a press release be issued to the professional, national and local press referring to him by name.
