Member severely reprimanded

On 8 March 2006, the Disciplinary Committee of the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants (ACCA) considered three complaints against a member, Robert Stephen Freeman, FCCA, sole practitioner trading as R S F Services Limited, of Hillcote Close, Sheffield. The complaints that the member was liable to disciplinary action under bye-law 8(a)(i) and (ii) and (iii) in that he, contrary to Rules of Professional Conduct 3.3.14:

- i) failed to deposit client monies into a client bank account, separate from other accounts of his firm

and
- ii) deposited client monies into accounts which did not include the word “client” in their title

and
- iii) failed to maintain records of client monies were found proved.

The Committee ordered that Mr Freeman should be severely reprimanded and pay a fine of £500 and costs of £848, and that the decision should be published by issuing a press release to the professional, national and local press referring to him by name.
