Student removed from register

On 6 March 2007, the Disciplinary Committee of the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants (ACCA) considered a complaint against a student, Mr Kazi Shoidul Islam of Wilshere Avenue, St Albans. The complaint that he was liable to disciplinary action under bye-law 8(a)(i), in that on a date or dates between March and August 2005, he deliberately falsified documentation by completing forms for audit work programmes indicating that checks had been carried out when he had not undertaken the required checks, contrary to the Fundamental Principle of Integrity, was found proved.

The Committee ordered that Mr Islam should be removed from the student register, pay costs of £960, and that the decision should be published by issuing a press release to the professional, national and local press referring to him by name.
