Student severely reprimanded

On 13 March 2007, the Disciplinary Committee of the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants (ACCA) considered a complaint against a student, Ms Momiza Ahmed of Vicarage Grove, London. The complaint that she was liable to disciplinary action under bye-law 8(a)(i), in that she failed to inform ACCA of material facts relevant to the exemption from the ACCA paper granted to her, namely that she had not, at the time she became aware that her exemptions had been granted, sat an examination in the qualification which was the basis for the exemption she had been awarded, contrary to the Fundamental Principle of Integrity, was found proved.

The Committee ordered that Ms Ahmed should be severely reprimanded, pay costs of £100, and that the decision should be published by issuing a press release to the professional, national and local press referring to her by name.
