Member reprimanded

On 14 March 2007, the Disciplinary Committee of the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants (ACCA) considered two complaints against a member, Mr Alun Wynford Evans FCCA of Church Road, Chester. The complaints that he was liable to disciplinary action in that:

- i) under bye-law 8(a)(ii), he has performed his work inefficiently to such an extent as to bring discredit to himself, having not carried out his professional work and respond to professional correspondence expeditiously contrary to the Fundamental Principle of Professional Competence and Due Care

- ii) under bye-law 8(a)(iii), in that he failed to carry out his professional work and respond to professional correspondence expeditiously, contrary to the Fundamental Principle of Professional Competence and Due Care were found proved.

The Committee ordered that Mr Evans should be reprimanded, pay costs of £915, and that the decision should be published by issuing a press release to the professional, national and local press referring to him by name.
