Student severely reprimanded

On 19 July 2007, the Disciplinary Committee of the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants (ACCA) considered a complaint against a student. The complaint that she was liable to disciplinary action under bye-law 8 (a)(i), in that she submitted a false examination report to her employer, contrary to the Fundamental Principle of Integrity, was found proved.

The Committee ordered that the student should be severely reprimanded, pay costs of £610, and that the decision should be published by issuing a press release to the professional, national and local press not referring to her by name.
