Member severely reprimanded

On 24 January 2008, the Disciplinary Committee of the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants (ACCA) considered a complaint against a member, Mr David Whistance (FCCA) of Freshwater, Isle of White. The complaint that he was liable to disciplinary action under bye-law 8(a)(vi) in that he had been disciplined by another regulatory body, namely the Financial Services Authority, was found proved.

The Committee ordered that Mr Whistance should be severely reprimanded, pay costs of £1476.50, and that the decision should be published by issuing a press release to the professional, national and local press referring to him by name.
