

press release

A hearing of ACCA's Disciplinary Committee will take place at 10.00 am on Thursday 18 September 2008, at the Competition Appeal Tribunal, Victoria House, Bloomsbury Place, London. WC1A 2EB. The hearing is open to any member of the public or the media who wishes to attend.

Three cases will be heard on this day:

- CASE 1 Concerns an allegation that a member has performed his professional work improperly, inefficiently or incompetently to such an extent as to bring discredit to himself, to the Association, or to the accountancy profession in that he failed to respond expeditiously or at all to professional correspondence from the Inland Revenue.
- CASE 2 Concerns an allegation that student A conspired with student B to have student B sit student A's examination in his place, contrary to the Fundamental Principle of Integrity.
- CASE 3 Concerns an allegation that a student stole money from her employers by transferring company monies into her personal bank account, contrary to the Fundamental Principle of Integrity.

The cases will be heard by a panel of the ACCA's Disciplinary Committee.
