

ACCA Achievement Awards 2007

Winner – Africa and Middle East

Mr Swadeck Taher

Mr Swadeck Taher is one of the leading figures in the accountancy and finance profession in Mauritius.

Through his work in promoting and developing national accounting standards, helping establish the Mauritius Institute of Professional Accountants and improving corporate governance, under the auspices of the National Committee on Corporate Government, his impact has been felt across the whole of the business community in Mauritius.

It is for his relentless commitment to raising standards and instituting best international practice that ACCA is delighted to name Swadeck Taher as Africa and the Middle East's ACCA Achievement Awards winner for 2007.
