“Remotely invigilated exams have reduced my travelling time and cost. Moreover I never felt the pressure of getting to the centre on time and I enjoyed writing the exam in my own space. I am so glad that ACCA is continuing to offer remote invigilation in Japan.”

By email
Students are provided with the pre-booking requirements during the exam entry period. Once students have entered an exam they’ll start to receive our learning support emails which will remind them of key setup and troubleshooting guidance. These weekly, tailored emails also signpost the core support resources and activities that students should be completing each week ahead of exam day.

Other support resources
We also have podcasts, webinars and run interactive sessions on our social media channels to support students sit their remote session exams successfully.
Equipment and internet connectivity requirements

Whilst remote exams provide added convenience for students, it is important for them to ensure they can meet the requirements to take an exam remotely.

Minimum requirement checklist
Students can check that they meet the minimum technical requirements for taking a remote session exam using our interactive checklist.

> Interactive checklist

System test
Once students have checked they can meet the minimum technical requirements they must then perform a successful system test in the same location and device they plan to use on exam day. The system test provides a point of time check on some aspects of meeting the technical requirements, but importantly not all. Therefore if students are unable to pass either the system test OR meet the technical requirements they should not enter for a remote session exam as the exam may not run successfully. Students must complete the system test via Exam Planner ahead of exam day in order to be eligible for some of our post-exam options.

> Students access the system test via their Exam Planner

Troubleshooting guidance
The vast majority of students enjoy a smooth exam day. However some students face unexpected technical issues on exam day. Our troubleshooting support highlights the steps students can take to avoid some of the common technical issues.

Making sure your students know the rules and regulations

Students are required to sit under exam conditions and will be monitored by a team of trained invigilators throughout. Additionally, there are some specific rules and regulations relating to remote session exams which help us run the exams securely.

These include:

- Taking the exam in a private and quiet room for the full duration of the exam.
- No scrap paper is permitted.
- Students are allowed a single 5 minute bathroom break.
- Additionally, students should make sure their room and desk setup meets the exam regulations.
- Access our desk and room setup infographic
- Just like our centre-based exams, students are not allowed to use secondary monitors, wear headphones nor leave the exam environment early.

Support beyond the exams

It’s not only exams that make an ACCA member. All our future members need to demonstrate that they can apply their knowledge in a real-world environment.

We call this the practical experience requirement (PER). As your students will already be gaining this experience, a little help from you can go a long way to helping them reach that membership goal more quickly.

All our future members need to complete nine performance objectives. Five common essential objectives and four technical objectives which can align to their personal goals. With your guidance and encouragement, you can make sure they have access to a qualified supervisor. And the opportunities to develop their knowledge into the skills that will benefit them - and you.

“...My experience with the RI exam was wonderful, at first I had reservations concerning my own computer configurations... but my overall experience was just beyond my imagination. The convenience of revising up to the very last minute before the check in process and avoiding travelling to the centre was a big plus to my final preparation. I also had the advantage of using my own computer which I was familiar with and also writing in a familiar environment was also a benefit.”

Exam integrity

You and your students can have confidence that our remote exams use the most robust and rigorous form of invigilation.

Students are supervised remotely by a live invigilator as well as using state of the art artificial intelligence checks on the exam environment. We also run multiple checks during our post-exam procedures to ensure the absolute integrity of the exams taken and results issued.

Investigating claims of malpractice

Whilst the vast majority of our students take their exams in a fair and ethical way, it is important for all students to be aware that we investigate all claims of malpractice either reported to us or highlighted by invigilators or through our post exam processes.

Any instances where students are suspected of attempting to gain benefit from any irregular methods, for example sharing exam content or receiving assistance from others/materials during the exam itself, will be investigated and results nullified. Students should be aware that the consequences of malpractice are severe and could ultimately result in students being removed from ACCA’s student register.
