Registered Learning Partner Application for approval

Please complete this application form and attach your supporting evidence to apply for approval as part of our Registered Learning Partner programme. Please submit your application to us by email at PQApprovals@accaglobal.com

Full details on Registered Learning Partner programme can be found within the accompanying Pre-approval guide or by accessing the ACCA website here.

This is for providers that offer a learning experience that combines face to face tuition and online learning through access to live or pre-recorded lectures in a single course. Participation in both elements of the tuition is necessary to complete the course and students can access their tuition both face to face and online.

Note:
All supporting materials in relation to an application for Registered Learning Partner are required to be translated into English.

Performance Assessment Matrix – Application to become a Registered Learning Partner

The following table outlines the performance targets which learning providers must demonstrate that they meet for approval.

Complete the column headed 'Learning provider comments' with a brief description of the ways that your institution is able to demonstrate that each of the relevant performance targets is met. You must supply supporting documentation with this application, clearly referenced to our performance targets that each document is relevant to.

The required evidence column outlines examples of how your institution can demonstrate that it meets our performance targets. The samples suggested will best demonstrate eligibility to the criteria set, however, if you wish to demonstrate that they meet our performance targets through the submission of additional/alternative evidence, you are welcome to do so.

ASSESSMENT AREA – STUDENT EXPECTATIONS AND POLICY

Performance target	Evidence requirements	Learning provider comments
1.1 Pre-enrolment information Students registering for tuition at your institution should be given all appropriate information on their courses prior to enrolling and committing to paying for tuition. ACCA will assess the evidence provided to ensure that there is transparency and there are no hidden policies that students should be aware of prior to signing up for tuition at your institution. Requirements <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Students should be asked to confirm that they have been provided with terms and conditions on enrolment. • A disclaimer should be included to confirm that all students have read and understood all terms and conditions. If the terms and conditions are located on a different document this should be referenced on the enrolment form. • Terms and conditions should specify your position on the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Refunds: under what circumstances can the student claim a refund for a course they have paid for? If your institution will not issue any refunds this should be included in your terms and conditions. – Course transfers: under what circumstances can a student transfer to a different course or examination session once they have paid? If your institution will not allow any course transfers this should be included in your terms and conditions. – Visa applications: how much responsibility does your institution take for visa applications, and what is the student's position if visa applications are refused? If your institution does not help students with visa applications it should be included that it is the full responsibility of the student to comply with any visa requirements in your terms and conditions. – Cost: the cost of accessing your tuition should be made clear to students before they enrol with your institution. There should be full transparency and no hidden fees. – Privacy policy: your policy should disclose how your institution gathers, uses, discloses, and manages student data and this should be communicated to students. Your privacy policy and procedures should be compliant with General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) or your local data protection law(s). – Dates: the dates that students can access all materials on your online learning platform and the expiry date should be made clear upon purchasing access to your online learning platform. – Technical requirements: students should be given guidance on the technical requirements of your online learning platform before they register for study at your institution. For example, does your online learning platform require access to Microsoft Excel or Word? – Browsers: should your online learning platform operate on specific browsers, for example, Firefox, Internet Explorer or Google, this should be made clear to students before they register for study at your institution. – Internet speed: if a specific internet speed/bandwidth is required to use all resources and participate in live lectures or to play back recorded lectures. 	Evidence that must be provided: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> A copy, hyperlink or screen shot to your institution's terms and conditions including a disclaimer or tick box to confirm that all students have read and understood all terms and conditions. Please ensure that your terms and conditions include the areas mentioned within the performance target. AND <input type="checkbox"/> Please make us aware if visa applications are not applicable to your institution when making the application (please note that this can be provided as written confirmation in an email or on the Performance Assessment Matrix). AND <input type="checkbox"/> A screen shot or email of the cost of accessing your online learning platform before the student pays any fees. AND <input type="checkbox"/> Evidence of how your institution notified students of start dates and expiry dates for their online tuition.

1.2 Complaints Students should be clear on how to make a complaint about your institution. There should be a transparent complaints procedure in place which is accessible to students. Complaints should be investigated thoroughly and promptly, within specified time frames. ACCA will assess the evidence provided to ensure that students are aware of how to make a complaint about your institution's product or service. Requirements <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Students should be aware of how to make a complaint about your institution's product or service. • A complaints policy should include your position on the following points: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – How formal complaints can be made – is there a standard template? How should it be submitted? – How long the complainant can expect to wait for acknowledgement of their complaint, and for a response. – How complaints will be treated – who will be involved in reviewing the complaint and will they be treated confidentially? – Whether the student has any right to appeal the outcome of their complaint, and any related processes. – Any student that wishes to make a complaint to ACCA regarding your institution will be advised to follow your institution's complaints procedure first. If the complaint is not handled to their satisfaction, the student then has the option to escalate their complaint to ACCA. If a student has exhausted both your complaints process and ACCA's, they can escalate to the appropriate regulator. Details of which can be found on the ACCA website at the following link: https://www.accaglobal.com/gb/en/footer-toolbar/contact-us/unhappy.html 	Evidence that must be provided: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> A copy, hyperlink or screen shot of the complaints policy. AND <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Information about how it is communicated to students. AND <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> A copy of the complaints log (which shows how your institution dealt with the complaints and any action taken as result). If your institution has not received any complaints we would still expect to see a complaints policy and blank log to evidence that you have the policy in place if a student wishes to log a complaint.
1.3 Promotional material All promotional material should adhere to ACCA's advertising regulations. ACCA will assess the evidence provided, your social media channels and website to ensure that information for students is up to date and contains no unsubstantiated claims, which are potentially misleading and could lead to student dissatisfaction. Requirements <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Promotional material contains accurate information regarding ACCA and should make no unsubstantiated or potentially misleading claims. • All promotional activity from an institution that is seeking to be approved by us should be legal, decent, honest and truthful. • ACCA's Advertising Regulations will be included as part of our review and can be located here • You must not use ACCA's corporate logo and Think Ahead logo. • ACCA's RLP approval is based on a single location. PART 3 – TERMS AND CONDITIONS

We confirm that our institution complies with all local regulatory requirements for tuition providers where such requirements exist.

We understand that ACCA is a regulator performing a function in the public interest.

We recognise that ACCA's Quality and Recognition department is solely responsible for all decisions regarding the awarding, renewal and removal of approval.

We accept that ACCA reserves the right to request additional information relating to matters included in this application, both prior to granting approval and during the period of approval.

We declare that all information provided as part of this application is, to the best of our knowledge, accurate.

We agree to adhere to the terms of the programme, including its Registered Learning Partner Handbook. Terms include (but are not limited to) participation in renewal exercises.

We will adhere to the terms of ACCA's advertising regulations within the Registered Learning Partner Handbook, and use of the ACCA logo in the production of all promotional and advertising materials for our institution.

We accept that ACCA reserves the right to decline our request for listing on ACCA's Registered Learning Partner Directory as a Registered Learning Partner if there is any cause for concern in relation to our operations (causes for concern include but are not limited to student complaints, unethical or fraudulent behaviour and reputational issues).

We understand that the above will also be grounds for the immediate removal of our institution's details from the Registered Learning Partner Directory and that in such cases, ACCA's decision is final and there is no appeal process. No refund of fees paid will be available in such circumstances.

We understand that it is our responsibility to ensure that our details on ACCA's Registered Learning Partner Directory are correct and that ACCA is kept informed of any changes to the contact details supplied previously and in this application.

We agree to inform ACCA immediately if any of our staff become aware of an actual or suspected breach of ACCA live assessment protocol involving the unauthorised sharing of live exam content. We acknowledge that this duty to inform ACCA also extends to instances where we become aware of third parties disclosing information regarding the live exam content in an unauthorised manner. Furthermore, we will provide ACCA with full details of the breach; the students or persons involved; and will take any necessary steps to ensure that our members of staff do not share or support sharing of the live exam content further.

We accept that should we conduct any other services on behalf of ACCA, such as on-demand computer based examinations, our Registered Learning Partner status may be affected in the event of breaching any of our other obligations to ACCA.

As a learning provider, we agree to adhere to The International Ethics Standards Board for Accountants (IESBA) Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants.

Please tick this box if you have fully read and understood the above declaration.
By doing so you agree to the terms and conditions stated.

Data protection

We may use the personal data provided on this form for the purposes of:

- administering learning providers and managing the application process
- regulating learning providers, and contacting the nominated individuals
- responding to enquiries and investigating complaints
- complying with regulatory obligations.

We may share information with our suppliers, our auditors, relevant regulators and law enforcement authorities where authorised by law.

Please note that for individuals based outside the UK, your information will be held in ACCA's main information systems which are located in the UK and EU and may be accessed by ACCA's local office in your country of residence. ACCA processes information within the UK and EU, but may also transfer data outside of UK and EU as part of its operations and service delivery.
