

Notification of a new firm

Please use this form to notify ACCA about a new firm in which you are practising (or intend to practise). If your new firm is incorporated you should not complete this form and should complete the Incorporation Notification form instead. If your new firm requires a UK and/or Irish auditing certificate you should not complete this form and should complete the appropriate initial application form(s). The Incorporation Notification form and the initial application forms are available on our website here.

This form may also be used to indicate the services and sectors which are applicable to your new firm. This information will then be shown against your firm's entry in the online 'Find a Firm' directory on our website (only applicable to firms in the UK or Ireland).

CONTINUITY OF PRACTICE OPT-IN SCHEME

ACCA has developed a search tool to enable members in the UK and Ireland to find firms prepared to provide continuity of practice arrangements. The search tool can be found in the 'find a firm' section of the ACCA website.

I confirm that I wish to participate in the continuity of practice scheme. I understand that ACCA is unable to recommend specific firms or get involved in drawing up continuity of practice agreements.

ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING SUPERVISION

If your new firm is a sole practice or the partners are all ACCA members then your firm's supervisor is automatically ACCA.

Tick here if this is the case

If this is not the case, the supervisor of your new firm is likely to be the professional body of which the partners who have overall control of your firm belong to. Note that if control of your new firm rests with unqualified partners then your firm should be registered with HMRC in the UK or the Anti-Money Laundering Compliance Unit, Department of Justice in Ireland.

Please state which body is your firm's supervisor
