Appendix 2: Recognised Professional Qualification Experience requirement (United Kingdom)

To obtain ACCA's recognised professional qualification (ie the UK audit qualification), members must have completed three years' (ie 132 weeks based on 44 weeks per annum) practical training in an ACCA approved employer and comply with the remaining requirements set out in the Rulebook Global Practising Regulations, Annex 1, Appendix 1 (6).

The recognised professional qualification experience requirement is set out below:

At least 44 weeks of the training must be in audit work. This should include:

- (a) at least 22 weeks specifically in statutory audit, and
- (b) a further 22 weeks which is either:
  - (i) audit work of companies established under the Companies Acts, or
  - (ii) audit work in respect of either:
    - (aa) organisations whose financial reporting requirements are laid down in statutes other than the Companies Acts, for example:
      - nationalised industries;
      - local councils, health authorities and self-governing trusts (excluding value for money audits and parish accounts);
      - housing associations;
      - insurance companies;
      - trade unions;
      - friendly or industrial and provident societies;
      - building societies, or

(bb) other entities where the provisions of the Auditing Standards issued by the UK competent authority or the International Standards on Auditing issued by the International Auditing and Assurance Standards Board apply and where an opinion or certificate is placed on accounts stating that they give a true and fair view of the financial position of the entity or that they present fairly the financial position of the entity. The turnover of the entity must exceed the VAT threshold ruling at the date to which the accounts are made up. Examples of non-statutory audits include:

- partnerships or sole traders whose external reporting obligations are governed by legislation or regulatory bodies;
- professional bodies (eg ACCA);
- charities;
- UK branches of overseas corporations;
- private partnerships and sole traders (subject to partnership agreements or bankers'/other third party demands).

Members whose audit experience is achieved some time before their application for the audit qualification will be required, prior to the award of the audit qualification, to demonstrate adequate competence in audit work by providing ACCA with details of recent audit experience and recent audit-related CPD.

Appendix 3: Recognised Professional Qualification Experience requirement (Ireland)

To obtain ACCA's recognised professional qualification (ie the Irish audit qualification), members must have completed three years' (ie 132 weeks based on 44 weeks per annum) practical training in an ACCA approved employer and comply with the remaining requirements set out in the Rulebook Global Practising Regulations, Annex 2, Appendix 1 (6).

The Recognised professional qualification experience requirement is set out below:

At least 44 weeks of the three years' practical training must be in statutory audit work and in accordance with the Companies Act 2014 of the Republic of Ireland.

Statutory audit work only includes audit work of:

- (a) companies established under the Companies Acts,
- (b) credit unions,
- (c) friendly societies or industrial and provident societies/co-operatives.

Members whose audit experience is achieved some time before their application for the audit qualification will be required, prior to the audit qualification being granted, to demonstrate adequate competence in audit work by providing ACCA with details of recent audit experience and recent audit-related CPD.
