Disciplinary Committee ordered no sanction against Member

On 25 January 2021, the Disciplinary Committee of ACCA (the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants) found proved the following allegation against Miss Louise Marie Carey FCCA of Listowel, County Kerry, Republic of Ireland:

Allegation 1:

- a. On 31 May 2016, judgement was entered against L.M. Carey & Co Limited in the sum of 1750 euros.

The Disciplinary Committee ordered that a reasonable excuse existed and, in light of its findings, the Committee did not consider the issue of sanction, as the matter effectively concludes in light of this decision above.

An application was made on behalf of Miss Carey for her to be awarded costs in the sum of €11,000. The Committee determined that there be no order for costs.

Please note that this may be the subject of an appeal.

ACCA's regulations require ACCA to publish the Committee's findings and orders by way of a news release, as soon as practicable.

 An order made by the Disciplinary Committee shall take effect from the date of expiry of the Appeal Period referred to in the Appeal Regulations unless the Committee directs that the order should have immediate effect*
