Disciplinary Committee ordered Student be removed from the register*

On 23 November 2021, the Disciplinary Committee of ACCA (the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants) found proved the following allegations against Mr Shamshir Abbas Shah, of Lahore, Punjab, Pakistan:

Allegations

Mr Shamshir Abbas Shah, is and being at all material times an ACCA student:

1. Submitted or caused to be submitted to ACCA on or about 10 May 2017 an ACCA Practical Experience training record which purported to confirm:
  - a. His Practical Experience Supervisor in respect of his practical experience training in the period 25 April 2014 to 08 May 2017 was Mr A when Mr A did not and or could not supervise his practical experience training in accordance with ACCA's requirements as set out and published in ACCA's PER Guidance (the Guidance).
  - b. He had achieved:
    - Performance Objective 3: Strategy and innovation;
    - Performance Objective 5: Leadership and management;
    - Performance Objective 19: Collect and evaluate evidence for an audit or assurance engagement; and

- Performance Objective 20: review and report on findings of an audit or assurance engagement.

2. Mr Shah's conduct in respect of the matters described in allegation 1 above was:

- a. In respect of allegation 1a, dishonest, in that Mr Shah sought to confirm his supervisor did and could supervise his practical experience training in accordance with ACCA's requirements which he knew to be untrue.
- b. In respect of allegation 1b dishonest, in that Mr Shah knew he had not achieved the performance objectives referred to in 1 b above as described in the corresponding performance objective statements or at all.

3. By reason of his conduct, Mr Shah is guilty of misconduct pursuant to ACCA bye-law 8(a)(i) in respect of any or all the matters set out at 1 to 3 above.

The Disciplinary Committee ordered that Mr Shah be removed from the student register and to pay costs to ACCA in the sum of £7,343.50.

Please note that this may be the subject of an appeal.

ACCA's regulations require ACCA to publish the Committee's findings and orders by way of a news release, as soon as practicable.

\ An order made by the Disciplinary Committee shall take effect from the date of expiry of the Appeal Period referred to in the Appeal Regulations unless the Committee directs that the order should have immediate effect*
