Disciplinary Committee ordered excluded from membership***

On 14 April 2022, the Disciplinary Committee of ACCA (the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants) found proved the following allegations against Mr Uzair Malik of Jeddah, Saudi Arabia:

Allegations

Mr Uzair (Al Zahra) Malik, at all material times an ACCA trainee

1. Submitted or caused to be submitted to ACCA on or about 19 July 2018 an ACCA Practical Experience training record which purported to confirm:
  - a) His Practical Experience Supervisor in respect of his practical experience training in the period 09 February 2015 to 18 February 2016 was Mr A and in respect of his practical experience training in the period 12 March 2016 to 22 May 2018 was Mr B when Mr A and or Mr B did not and/or could not supervise his practical experience training in respect of those periods of training in accordance with ACCA's requirements as set out and published in ACCA's PER Guidance (the Guidance).
  - b) he had achieved:
    - Performance Objective 3: Strategy and innovation;
    - Performance Objective 4: Governance, risk and control;
    - Performance Objective 5: Leadership and management;
    - Performance Objective 6: Record and process transactions and events; and
    - Performance Objective 8: Analyse and interpret financial reports

2. Mr Uzair Malik's conduct in respect of the matters described in allegation 1 above was: -
  - a) In respect of allegation 1a, dishonest, in that Mr Uzair Malik sought to confirm his Practical Experience Supervisors did and could supervise his practical experience training in accordance with ACCA's requirements which he knew to be untrue.
  - b) In respect of allegation 1b dishonest, in that Mr Uzair Malik knew he had not achieved the performance objectives referred to in paragraph 1b) as described in the corresponding performance objective statements or at all.

4. By reason of his conduct, Mr Uzair Malik is guilty of misconduct pursuant to ACCA bye-law 8(a)(i) in respect of any or all the matters set out at 1 to 3.

The Disciplinary Committee ordered that Mr Uzair Malik be removed from the members' register and to pay costs to ACCA in the sum of £5,000.00.

Please note that this may be the subject of an appeal.

ACCA's regulations require ACCA to publish the Committee's findings and orders by way of a news release, as soon as practicable.

\ An order made by the Disciplinary Committee shall take effect from the date of expiry of the Appeal Period referred to in the Appeal Regulations unless the Committee directs that the order should have immediate effect*
