Members auditing certificate withdrawn*

On 09 October 2023, the Admissions and Licensing Committee of ACCA (the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants) considered a case concerning Mr Jason Seagrave FCCA.

The Committee made an order pursuant to Authorisation Regulations 6(16)(a)(ii) and 5(2)(f) that:

- The auditing certificate for the Firm and Mr Seagrave's practising certificate with audit qualification be withdrawn.
- Mr Seagrave be re-issued with a practising certificate.
- Any future re-application for audit registration by Mr Seagrave, or by a firm in which he is a principal, must be referred to the Admissions and Licensing Committee, which will not consider the application until he has provided an action plan, which ACCA regards as satisfactory, setting out how Mr Seagrave intends to prevent a recurrence of the previous deficiencies and attended a practical audit course, approved by ACCA and, following the date of this order, passed the advanced audit and assurance paper of ACCA's professional qualification.

In accordance with PS13.1 the Committee was satisfied that it was necessary in order to protect the public to direct that its order have immediate effect.

Please note that this may be the subject of an appeal.

ACCA's regulations require ACCA to publish the Committee's findings and orders by way of a news release, as soon as practicable.
