Health Committee determined that the matter be deferred for 12 months and member be suspended with immediate effect *

On 11 September 2023 the Health Committee of ACCA (the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants) reviewed proceedings against a Member. The hearing took place in private.

The Health Committee determined that the member be suspended from membership with immediate effect. Further, the Committee ordered that the Member undergo an independent medical examination and that this matter be deferred for a period of 12 months.

ACCA's regulations require ACCA to publish the Committee's findings and orders by way of a news release, as soon as practicable.

Notes to Editors

About ACCA: ACCA is the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants. We're a thriving global community of 233,000 members and 536,000 future members based in 178 countries and regions that upholds the highest professional and ethical values.

We believe that accountancy is a cornerstone profession of society that supports both public and private sectors. That's why we're committed to the development of a strong global accountancy profession and the many benefits that this brings to society and individuals.

Since 1904 being a force for public good has been embedded in our purpose. And because we're a not-for-profit organisation, we build a sustainable global profession by re-investing our surplus to deliver member value and develop the profession for the next generation.

Through our world leading ACCA Qualification, we offer everyone everywhere the opportunity to experience a rewarding career in accountancy, finance and management. And using our respected research, we lead the profession by answering today's questions and preparing us for tomorrow.

ACCA and CA ANZ have formed a strategic alliance for the benefit of members and to help shape the future of the profession. Find out more about us at accaglobal.com
