Disciplinary Committee ordered student removed*

On 5 & 6 June 2024, the Disciplinary Committee of ACCA (the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants) found proved the following allegations against Mr Muhammad Faseeh of Peshawar, Pakistan:

Allegations

Mr Muhammad Faseeh ('Mr Faseeh'), a student of the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants ('ACCA'):

1. On 2 March 2021, during a remotely invigilated MA2 Managing Costs and Finance examination (the 'exam') engaged in improper conduct designed to assist himself in his exam attempt in that he caused or permitted a third party to be present during all or part of the exam and/or to provide a prompt to an answer he had on screen during the exam.
2. Mr Faseeh's conduct referred to in paragraph 1 above was in breach of:
 - a) Examination Regulation 10; and/or
 - b) Examination Regulation 2 by failing to comply with instructions issued by ACCA personnel (as per the Student Information Sheet) before and/or during the exam, in that he failed to ensure no one else was around him in the room where he sat his exam.
3. Further, Mr Faseeh's conduct as referred to in paragraphs 1 and/or 2 above was:
 - a) Dishonest, in that Mr Faseeh sought to obtain an unfair advantage in the exam by obtaining assistance from a third party; or in the alternative,

4. By reason of his conduct, Mr Faseeh is:

- a) Guilty of misconduct pursuant to bye-law 8(a)(i), in respect of any or all of the matters set out at Allegations 1, 2 and/or 3 above

The Disciplinary Committee ordered that Mr Faseeh be removed from the student register and to pay costs to ACCA in the sum of £8,899.75

Please note that this may be the subject of an appeal.

ACCA's regulations require ACCA to publish the Committee's findings and orders by way of a news release, as soon as practicable.

 An order made by the Disciplinary Committee shall take effect from the date of expiry of the Appeal Period referred to in the Appeal Regulations unless the Committee directs that the order should have immediate effect*
