The hearing is open to any member of the public or the media who wish to attend. However, ACCA is only able to accommodate remote access to the hearing. Please contact adminadjudication@accaglobal.com to obtain information about attending this (or any other) hearing.

The case to be heard on this day concerns Ms Jeevitha Hennur Mahesh.

Allegations

Ms Jeevitha Hennur Mahesh an ACCA student, on 08 December 2022, in respect of a remotely invigilated Financial Accounting exam (the exam):

1. Used an unauthorised item namely a mobile phone, contrary to exam regulation 5 (a)
2. Used the unauthorised item as referred to in allegation 1 above to gain an unfair advantage in her exam.
3. Engaged in conduct as described above which was designed to assist her in her exam attempt, contrary to regulation 10
4. Ms Hennur Mahesh's conduct in respect of allegations 1 to 3 above was in addition:
 - I. Dishonest, in that by her own admission she was looking for notes that could assist her with her exam and thereby obtain an unfair advantage in the exam, or in the alternative,
 - II. Demonstrates a failure to act with integrity.

5. By reason of the above Ms Hennur Mahesh is:

- I. Guilty of misconduct pursuant to bye-law 8(a)(i) in respect of the conduct referred to above or, in the alternative,
- II. Liable to disciplinary action pursuant to bye-law 8(a)(iii) (in respect of allegations 1 and 3 only).

The allegations listed above are current at the date of publication.

The case will be heard by a panel of the ACCA's Disciplinary Committee.
