Notice of Hearing

A hearing of ACCA's Interim Orders Committee will take place at 09:30am on 12 June 2024. It will be held remotely but based at the ACCA's Offices, The Adelphi, 1-11 John Adam Street, London, WC2N 6AU.

The hearing will be heard in private unless the Interim Orders Committee considers it appropriate for it to be heard in public.

The case to be heard on this day concerns Mr Mehmood Mohammed.

The Interim Orders Committee (Disciplinary) of ACCA (the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants) will consider whether to impose an interim order suspending the Membership and/or suspend or make subject to conditions any practice certificates held by Mr Mohammed on the basis that it is necessary to do so in order to protect the public.

The case will be heard by a panel of the ACCA's Interim Orders Committee

About ACCA

We are ACCA (the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants), a globally recognised professional accountancy body providing qualifications and advancing standards in accountancy worldwide.

Founded in 1904 to widen access to the accountancy profession, we've long championed inclusion and today proudly support a diverse community of over 252,500 members and 526,000 future members in 180 countries.

Our forward-looking qualifications, continuous learning and insights are respected and valued by employers in every sector. They equip individuals with the business and finance expertise and ethical judgment to create, protect, and report the sustainable value delivered by organisations and economies.

Guided by our purpose and values, our vision is to develop the accountancy profession the world needs. Partnering with policymakers, standard setters, the donor community, educators and other accountancy bodies, we're strengthening and building a profession that drives a sustainable future for all.
