Disciplinary Committee ordered member to be prevented from making an application for readmission to membership until the expiry of five years***

On 02 May 2025, the Disciplinary Committee of ACCA (the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants) found proved the following allegations against Mr Michael Andrew Harris of Southend On Sea, Essex, United Kingdom:

Allegations

1. Contrary to Complaints and Disciplinary Regulations 3(1) 2014 (as amended), Mr Michael Andrew Harris, an ACCA member, has failed to co-operate with an investigation into a complaint in that he did not respond to any or all of ACCA's correspondence dated:
  - a. 23 January 2024
  - b. 08 February 2024
  - c. 04 March 2024
- 2 By reason of the conduct set out at (1) above, Mr Harris is:
  - a. Guilty of misconduct pursuant to bye-law 8(a)(i).

The Disciplinary Committee ordered that Mr Harris shall be prevented from making an application for readmission to membership until the expiry of five years from the effective date of this order, and for Mr Harris to pay costs to ACCA in the sum of £12,000.

Please note that this may be the subject of an appeal.

ACCA's regulations require ACCA to publish the Committee's findings and orders by way of a news release, as soon as practicable.

\ An order made by the Disciplinary Committee shall take effect from the date of expiry of the Appeal Period referred to in the Appeal Regulations unless the Committee directs that the order should have immediate effect*
