ACCA Think Ahead

News release

11 November 2026

Notice of hearing

A hearing of ACCA's Disciplinary Committee will take place at 08:30am on 10 and 11 December 2026. It will be held remotely but based at the ACCA's Offices, The Adelphi, 1-11 John Adam Street, London, WC2N 6AU.

The hearing is open to any member of the public or the media who wish to attend. However, ACCA is only able to accommodate remote access to the hearing. Please contact adminadjudication@accaglobal.com to obtain information about attending this (or any other) hearing.

The case to be heard on this day concerns Mr Meshaki Y Msacky.

Allegations

Mr Meshaki Y Msacky, a member of the Association of Chartered Accountants (ACCA):

1. On 29 June 2025, while employed at Firm A, used Artificial Intelligence technology, namely CoPilot, when completing internal mandatory assessments.

2. On 08 July 2025, while employed at Firm A, used Artificial Intelligence technology, namely CoPilot, when completing internal mandatory assessments.

3. Mr Msacky's conduct in respect of any or all of the above conduct was dishonest, in that he knowingly used CoPilot when completing such assessment after having been expressly directed that the use of Artificial Intelligence technology was prohibited during any or all examinations and/or that he had confirmed that he would not use such technology.

4. In the alternative, on the same facts, in respect to any or all of the conduct referred to in Allegations 1 and/or 2, Mr Msacky failed to act with integrity.

5. In the further alternative; Mr Msacky was reckless in that he paid no or insufficient regard to the fact that the use of AI was prohibited when completing any or all of the assessments.

6. By reason of the conduct set out in any or all Allegations above Mr Msacky is:

    a. Guilty of misconduct and liable to disciplinary action pursuant to bye-law 8(a)(i).

The allegations listed above are current at the date of publication.

The case will be heard by a panel of the ACCA's Disciplinary Committee.
