ACCA Think Ahead

News release

11 November 2026

Member's audit qualification and the firm's audit certificate be withdrawn*

On 27 October 2026, the Admissions and Licensing Committee of ACCA (the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants) considered a case concerning Mr Shevki Mehmet and S M Harman Limited.

The Committee made an order pursuant to Authorisation Regulations 5(2)(f) and 6(16)(a)(iv) that Mr Mehmet's audit qualification and his firm's auditing certificate be withdrawn and that Mr Mehmet be required to pass the advanced audit and assurance paper of ACCA's professional qualification before making any future reapplication for the audit certificates.

Please note that this may be the subject of an appeal.

ACCA's regulations require ACCA to publish the Committee's findings and orders by way of a news release, as soon as practicable.

About ACCA

We are ACCA (the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants), a globally recognised professional accountancy body providing qualifications and advancing standards in accountancy worldwide.

Founded in 1904 to widen access to the accountancy profession, we've long championed inclusion and today proudly support a diverse community of over 252,500 members and 526,000 future members in 180 countries.

Our forward-looking qualifications, continuous learning and insights are respected and valued by employers in every sector. They equip individuals with the business and finance expertise and ethical judgment to create, protect, and report the sustainable value delivered by organisations and economies.

Guided by our purpose and values, our vision is to develop the accountancy profession the world needs. Partnering with policymakers, standard setters, the donor community, educators and other accountancy bodies, we're strengthening and building a profession that drives a sustainable future for all.
