Study an international Master's with ACCA

If you're looking for an exciting, rewarding career that could take you all over the world, studying for the MSc Strategic Accounting could be a great place to start.

When you combine academic studies with the world-leading ACCA Qualification, you gain a potent blend of skills and experience that makes you instantly attractive to employers.

ACCA has partnered with Ulster University to give you the opportunity to take ACCA exams while you study for your Master's. You'll work towards two qualifications at the same time. And by the time you graduate, you could be well on your way to becoming an ACCA member.

Why study for the ACCA Qualification alongside your Master's?

You'll get all the experiences that come from studying at University – a fresh perspective, the opportunity to learn and develop skills that employers are looking for and opportunities to build a diverse network. And of course, you can gain both a professional qualification and an academic one.

When you take this fast route to ACCA membership, you can:

Go anywhere, do anything

Whatever your passion is, ACCA's flexible qualification will help you get there. And because it's recognised all over the world, you can work internationally.

Stand out to the best employers

The ACCA Qualification gives you the technical, professional and ethical skills and experience employers everywhere are looking for.

Accelerate your career

Studying for the ACCA Qualification and a Master's simultaneously means the moment you graduate, you'll be ready to start your career.

Be part of something big

When you join ACCA, you become part of a global network of students and members who'll be there to support you throughout your career.

Study for the MSc Strategic Accounting

This course will develop graduates with the skills base to take advantage of a various roles in diverse environments, depending on preference. These include large, medium and small public practice firms, industry and commerce, government and public sector organisations.

What will you study?

The MSc Strategic Accounting modules prepare you for these ACCA exams:

Compulsory:

Strategic Business Leader:

- An innovative case study exam based on real-world challenges future accountants will face.

Strategic Business Reporting:

- An enhanced corporate reporting exam that gives you the skills to explain transactions and reporting.

Option Papers (Choose 2 of 4)

- Advanced Financial Management
- Advanced Performance Management
- Advanced Audit and Assurance
- Advanced Taxation

Additional University modules will allow you to develop and apply research skills and complete a module in either Cyber Security or Data Analytics.

How does it fit into the ACCA journey?

If you've already passed – or have exemptions for – the first nine ACCA exams, you can take your ACCA Strategic Professional exams during your Master's degree and also complete your Master's in a shorter time. You can also gain practical experience which is recognised as part of ACCA's practical experience requirement. When you graduate, you'll just have to take the Ethics and Professional Skills module and fulfil the rest of the practical experience requirement and then you'll become a fully-qualified ACCA member.
