TR 10/2016 provides a pro-forma letter for members carrying out audits of companies in Ireland. This letter and form have been approved by CCABI, the Incorporated Law Society of Ireland and the Incorporated Law Society of Northern Ireland.

Pro-forma Solicitors Enquiry letter¹

From: Client (Name and Address)

To: Solicitor (Name and Address) Date

Dear Sir (s)

Re : Balance sheet

1. In connection with the preparation and audit of our financial statements as at the date mentioned above the Company has made estimates of the amounts of the ultimate liabilities (including costs) which might be incurred, and are regarded as material, in relation to the matters set out in Schedule 1, on which you have been consulted.

We should be obliged if you would confirm that in your opinion these estimates are reasonable or, where you take a different view, please insert your own estimate. If you leave any of the estimates unchanged, it will be taken that you agree with the same.

It is agreed that any estimates given or accepted by you are given or accepted on the basis that you will not incur any liability whatever for any loss or damage which may be suffered by any person by reason of any such estimates being incorrect either on the basis of facts presently known or facts subsequently coming to light.

2. Would you please estimate in Schedule 2 the amount of costs and outlay due or accrued to you by the Client as at the balance sheet date, together with your costs for dealing with this query form, so far as is possible without necessarily drawing a bill of costs and without any commitment on your part to the amount so estimated.

¹ This template does not include any enquiries about title deeds as the definitive records for most properties will be on the Land Registry website or the Property Registration Authority website. Only in exceptional cases, such as for property that is not registered on these websites, will we be expected to make enquiries of solicitors in this respect.

3. Would you please indicate in Schedule 3 the amount of any monies held by you on behalf of the Client as at the balance sheet date.

4. This letter and form are submitted in duplicate. Please retain the copies and send the completed originals direct to our Auditors: [insert details below]

Yours faithfully,
