Irish Residence Permit (IRP) Card Renewal

Immigration Service Delivery

Required documents reference guide

Irish Residence Permit (IRP) card renewal if you live in Dublin City or County or are a Brexit Withdrawal Agreement beneficiary.

The information included in this document should help you upload the documents we need to process your online renewal application. You should still make sure you are aware of the conditions for the permission type or stamp you have selected in the online form. This is important whether you are using the form to renew your IRP card with the same permission or renewing your IRP card for a change in your permission or stamp.

To avoid a delay in the processing of your application, please make sure to upload the required documents when making your application.

Please note, in some cases we may need additional documentation to process an application. When this happens, we will contact you to request it.

Irish Residence Permit (IRP) card renewal if you live outside Dublin.

The information included in this document should help you to bring the correct documents to your registration renewal appointment at your local GNIB office.

Before your appointment, you should still make sure you are aware of the conditions for your permission type or stamp. This is important whether your appointment is to renew your IRP card with the same permission or renewing your IRP card for a change in your permission or stamp. Please note for your renewal appointment:

- You need to bring your old IRP card with you, it will be kept by the immigration officer.
- You must bring your original documents, copies of documents cannot be used instead.
- Your passport will not be stamped as this is no longer a requirement for an IRP card renewal.
- A new photograph of you may be taken at your appointment.
- If your permission is based on your spouse, civil partner, de facto partner, or another sponsoring family member they must attend your appointment with you.
- If you are an EU Treaty rights applicant and are renewing on the basis of living in Ireland with an EU citizen for more than 5 years, you will need to apply to EU Treaty Rights Division in Immigration Service Delivery to renew your permission before your appointment to renew your IRP card.
