ADVANCE PRICING ARRANGEMENT ANALYTICS AND TRANSFER PRICING IN A DYNAMIC LANDSCAPE

1.5 CPD units
TS20141031

In this seminar, the speakers will explain how advance pricing arrangements have been created in Hong Kong to serve as an alternative mechanism for resolving transfer pricing issues, the relevant principles and procedures, the technical difficulties and the challenges ahead. They will take you to the actual cases completed or under processing. They will emphasize issues like selection of comparables, business and income profiles, profit level indicators and comparability adjustments, including capital intensity adjustments. The seminar should be useful for tax accountants who want to turn a good working knowledge of transfer pricing into practical solutions that can solve upfront transfer pricing issues without fear of facing a transfer pricing audit.
