IFRS 15 REVENUE FROM CONTRACTS WITH CUSTOMERS - REVIEW ON LISTED / NON-LISTED COMPANIES (RERUN IN ENGLISH) (RESCHEDULED)

1.5 CPD units

TS20190827

IFRS 15 shall be applied in preparing financial statements for annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2018. The first sets of financial statements that were affected by IFRS 15 were released in early 2019. What are the actual impacts on the published financial statements? How does it affect the financial performance of listed companies?

In the seminar, we will review the actual financial results of some listed / non-listed companies including:

- Sun Hung Kai Properties Limited
- Dah Chong Hong Holdings
- Galaxy Entertainment Group Limited
- Starbucks – loyalty program
- Cathy Pacific – Asia Miles program
- ABC Cooking Studio – service package

SPEAKER

Ms Eunice Chu, FCCA, Head of Policy, ACCA Hong Kong

Eunice is responsible for elevating ACCA's brand equity through stakeholders' engagement, speaking in forums and training events, conducting research projects, article contribution and media commentaries. She is the moderator of the annual ACCA Hong Kong CFO Summit and speaker of various business events.

Through collaboration with Big 4, universities, educational institutions and professional bodies, Eunice is responsible for driving research projects contributing to the development of accounting profession and business community in Hong Kong. She is the co-author of various research reports including 'Understand the new cyber reality', 'Hong Kong's Automated Future – An RPA Guide for Finance Functions', and 'Greater Bay Area Opportunities – Capitalising Hong Kong's Unique Edge'. Her work supports ACCA's thought leadership agenda.

Besides her research work, Eunice also assists ACCA's advocacy and educational work, giving presentation and training sessions on financial reporting, corporate governance and professional ethics issues in Hong Kong, Vietnam and Cambodia.

Prior to joining ACCA Hong Kong, Eunice gained extensive senior finance management experience through working as the Regional Finance Director of a US-listed company and a Fortune 500 multinational corporation for over a decade, overseeing over 11 territories in Asia Pacific and Middle East region. And she had also worked as an auditor in PwC before.

Online CPD courses are offered to ACCA members to help meet their needs in professional development. These courses are provided in collaboration with the following providers:

The Open University of Hong Kong (OUHK)

Courses and modules are derived from the courses in the Master of Laws (LLM) in Chinese Business Law, Master of Business Administration and Master of Professional Accounting programmes.

Shanghai National Accounting Institute (SNAI)

Directly affiliated to and constructed by the Ministry of Finance. The Distance Education Network of SNAI, a key finance and economic website, established an ACCA online learning platform.

EasyFinance

EasyFinance Management Consulting Co Ltd

focuses on the distribution of financial management knowledge. "Financial Studio" provides a series of training opportunities to improve finance team management competence and multi-dimensional communication skills.

We are also working with e-learning providers such as accountingcpd.net and BPP to bring you flexible, interactive and affordable CPD opportunities that are globally relevant.
